

less time - to elope long with any. I still love any, & believe that any will be brought to order.

Yours on <sup>your</sup> fifth
S. Smith

Rev. A. A. Phelps

Gerrit Smith Esq.

Clinton Apr. 20 1839
Taty.

I thank you my dear writer, for your frank & friendly letter rec'd. last evening. Don't think a lady of the Non-Resistance. I am more than half a Non-Resistant myself - and my friends think, that I am in a fair way to become a whole one. When I see you, as I hope to do next month in New York, I will tell you, that you Left an influence in leading me into the Non-Resistance path. And I think too, that you are too much alarmed about Non-Resistance. It will be many years before a thousand of our Abolitionists will turn Non-Resistance.

I expect to leave home a week from Sunday for New York - and I shall leave home with great confidence that I shall have the happiness of seeing the Disfranchised, & Oppressed quieted, or in a fair way to be quieted. L. G. Quincy & H. C. Wright have